

Bargaining Update for UC Nurses

UC and CNA narrow differences, continue negotiations on new contract for nurses

During three days of negotiations Aug. 1-3, UC and the California Nurses Association discussed a wide range of topics and narrowed differences on several core issues. UC and the union also agreed to continue negotiations the week of August 20th.

Items discussed during the Aug. 1-3 session included:

- Wages
- Health benefits
- Retirement benefits
- Parking rates
- Rights for per diem and floating nurses
- Educational requirements

UC offered enhancements and indicated flexibility on a number of issues, and looks forward to continuing to work with the union to close remaining gaps.

Next bargaining session: Week of August 20th.

To stay updated on contract negotiations, visit ucal.us/UCnurses.